

I am indeed thankful to all of you for your positive initial response. You have signified that we want a more vibrant parish community. A vibrant and dynamic parish is one where everyone is actively involved in the different ministries of the parish. The pressing need of the parish at the moment is related to the Eucharistic Celebration. We know that the Eucharist is the fountain, center and apex of our as Christen life. Right now there is a need for volunteers to serve as Lectors, Rosary prayer leaders, Eucharistic ministers, ushers and choir members. Please call the office if you want to join any of the above-mentioned groups. In due time, we shall announce an orientation gathering for the volunteer ministers. Furthermore, please know that beginning this month of August, all weekday masses will be at 8:15 in the morning. Thank you so much.
